Management Succession

- The Committee shall, in consultation with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, periodically review the Company's management succession planning, including policies for Chief Executive Officer selection and succession in the event of the incapacitation, retirement or removal of the Chief Executive Officer, and evaluations of, and development plans for, any potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer.

Authority and Delegations

The Committee has the sole authority to retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser and shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any such adviser retained by the Committee. The Committee has sole authority to approve all such advisers' fees and other retention terms. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for the payment of reasonable compensation to such adviser retained by the Committee. The Committee may select such advisers, or receive advice from any other adviser, only after taking into consideration those independence factors enumerated by Nasdaq rules.

The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or the Chair of the Committee when it deems it appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

The Committee may delegate to one or more officers of the Company the authority to make grants and awards of stock rights or options to any non-Section 16 officer of the Company under such of the Company's incentive-compensation or other equity-based plans as the Committee deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms of such plans.

If at any time the Committee includes a member who is not a "non-employee director" ("Non-Employee Director") within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), then either a subcommittee comprised entirely of individuals who are Non-Employee Directors or the Board shall approve any stock option and other equity incentive grants to any individual who is subject to liability under Section 16 of the Exchange Act.

The Chief Executive Officer may not be present, even if serving as a member of the Committee, during voting or deliberations related to his or her compensation, and the Chief Executive Officer shall recuse himself from voting on his own compensation.
